You Keep Givin' Me

Brian Littrell

So many reasons to be thankful So many blessings that I can't repay And I never would've made it here without You Sending angels to guide me on my way

You keep givin' me joy You keep givin' me happiness You keep givin' me hope You keep givin' me everything I wish You keep givin' holding me When I'm about to fall And if even all of that was not enough You keep givin' me love (You're givin', You're givin' me love)

I know that I'm not always easy And I know I put You through some trying days But in spite of all the worries that I gave You No, You never let my Angels get away

You keep givin' me joy You keep givin' me happiness You keep givin' me hope You keep givin' me everything I wish You keep givin' holding me When I'm about to fall And if even all of that was not enough You keep givin' me love

Have I told You lately (have I told ya) How Your love has saved me It takes me to place I've only dreamed I'm so thankful, Lord, for sending me angels

You keep givin' me joy You keep givin' me happiness You keep givin' me hope You keep givin' me everything I wish You keep givin' holding me When I'm about to fall And if even all of that was not enough

You send angels to guide me from up above You just keep gvin' me You just keep givin' me love

You're givin' me, givin' me, givin' me... How can I thank you? How can I thank you, Lord? You're the One who's blessed me with everything You keep givin' love... You keep givin' love... You keep givin' me... givin' me love You! You! You! Givin' me, givin' me You're givin' me, givin' me, givini' me... My everything
