After the storm there's the dead of night It seems there's no way back for me So little comfort in my lonely bed To know
That it had to be

And now I miss you in so many ways You know I miss you for so many Lonely days Oh! Why don't we try again

In the dark there's a desert flower It blooms where no-one ever sees Our love was stronger than history Our love will never cease to be How can I live with you-as-a memory You hold The best part of me - oh -

And now I miss you in so many ways You know I miss you for so many Lonely days Oh! Why don't we try again

No use me waiting by the telephone You're gone -It ain't gonna ring

And now I miss you in so many ways
You know I miss you for so many
Lonely lonely days and nights
I know you miss me for so many
Lonely days
Oh!
Why don't we try again
Oh!
Why don't we try again!