

Midnight's Another Day

Brian Wilson

Lost my way

The sun burnt in

Stepped over graves

And stood in sin

Took the dive, but

Couldn't swim

A flag without the wind

When there's no mornin'

Without you

There's only darkness

The whole day through

Took the diamond

From my soul

And turned it back into gold

All these voices

All these memories

Made me feel like stone

All these people

Make me feel so alone

Lost in the dark

No shades of grey

Until I found

(Until I found)

Midnight's another day

Swept away

(Swept away)

In a brainstorm

(a brainstorm)

Chapters missing

(chapters missing)

Pages torn

(Pages torn)

Waited too long

To feel the warm

I had to chase the sun

Doo doo doo doo doo

Doo doo doo doo doo

All these voices

All these memories

Made me feel like stone

All these people

They've made me feel so alone

Lost in the dark

(lost in the dark)

No shades of grey

Until I found

(until I found)

Midnight's another day
