By the blood from the fire Tasted death lifts them higher Nothing stronger than I know The Father Son and Holy Ghost Gentle Savior close your eyes The Light will never die Revolution from His side Every soul is made alive No more secrets, mysteries And there is no more doubt Christ the King, the Prophet and Priest He has become all things despite of me Had a price upon His head Fanatics and zealots wanted Him dead Free gift came upon all men Nothing left to figure out In the beginning there was a garden It's all creation in the mind of man And there was knowledge abundant life God of the Ages divine plan As the stars shine in the night sky Like the promise of just One Seed Resurrection at the first Light Is a person brought out in me