Gold watch, big car, nice clothes

Now you're living where the big fat sugar daddy goes

Hey! Girlie, girl you're living on the big screen

So don't play innocent with me

Cos I know where you've been

What you get is what you see
Can't break me down cos I believe in me in me
All l wanted was just a little of respect
But if sex is all you want. lay down on the bed
See what you get

Don't go loving me no, don't you love me now Don't go messing me around You better, you better watch yourself Don't go loving me now, don't you love me You knocked my soul to the ground So don't go loving me now

Love, respect, honesty and trust
These are the things you took in yourself
And traded in lust
You're playing a game, have you no shame
You tried to make me feel special,
But how could I believe

What you get is what you see
Can't break me down cos I believe in me in me
All l wanted was just a little of respect
But if sex is all you want. lay down on the bed
See what you get

Don't go loving me no, don't you love me now Don't go messing me around
You better, you better watch yourself
Don't go loving me now, don't you love me
You knocked my soul to the ground
So don't go loving me now
