Hell No

Bruce Dickinson

There's a secret that we all share In the darkest hours of the night You can swear on the bible... Cut the thoat of your rival

I've been taking my life in my hand And I'm making new plans yeah... Now I'm starting my life on my own In the virgin unknown...

Hell...Hell no... Oh where do we belong? In this place, where we fight, Oh where do we belong?

There's a place in the misty air Not a million miles away from here You can make it your own place You can change your own face

I've been taking my life in my hand And I'm making new plans yeah... Now I'm starting my life on my own In the virgin unknown...

Hell...Hell no... Oh where do we belong? In this place, where we fight, Oh where do we belong? Sceaming Hell...Hell no... Oh where do we belong? In this place,where we fight, Oh where do we belong? In this place,where we fight, Oh where do we belong?

If you can't really say What you don't real you don't really know What you can't really say Sceaming out Hell no Shouting out Hell no On his knees shouting Hell no Defiant as Hell no On the street singing Hell no On his knees Hell no Still shouting out Hell no Sceaming Hell no Hell no, Hell no...one, two, three, four...
