

An Old Thick Wall

BSP

I've got a feeling sometimes like a stone
Back home ev'rything is slow
I can't simply stop this hurricane
You can't be so unkind ev'ry day
You told me one thing - I don't wanna hear
And it seems like the furture's gonna be so cold
I must say it's all right to ev'ryone we meet
Wanna ujst lie in your arms - shit

Chorus:

Far away where there is no way
Far away loneliness coming
Far away so save our souls, friend
Far away

It looks like you found a wrong man
I feel never needed your true laugh
So just take off your showy dress I hate
You stop now these crazy lonely deaths
I wanna say all right ti ev'ryone you've met
What's the mather now whit your adventures?
Better look twice'cause pale they need to go
You stop, you stop, you

Chorus:

Far away...

C'mon, c'mon

I wrote it on a lonelyy wall
I wrote it on an old thick lonely wall

Chorus:

Far away....
