You ever been so bored
That you start counting all your teeth
As you squirm around and fidget
In your cluttered, lousy seat
You ever been so tired
That your spirit begins to sigh
And you're working everyday
Just to make ends meet.

She's got me hanging on...

You ever wake up in a hotel room
But can't remember the city or state
You look around, you roam around
But your mind just can't relate.
You ever been so lost
That a map won't do you no good
As you drive around in circles in a place or town
Or some kind of neighborhood.

She's got me hanging on...

You ever eaten at a taco shop in Carbondale, Illinois It looks just like home but your stomachs never known The jolt it's about to enjoy You ever been so desperate But for what you just don't know You see a thousand faces And you want to remember them all.

She's got me hanging on...
