Won't change my world for you... Waiting in the dark She's hoping for a call But he won't be there at all Till the morning comes With a never ending lie He'll just look her in the eyes And say their love is still alive Then she'll turn and run She says Is this the way you think we're gonna go? Just think again I don't wanna know Easy love With no meanin' Oh, easy love Ah, with no feelin's Easy love (Won't change my world) Waiting for the train On a cold and windy night 'Cause she's lost the will to fight But she'll be back again She cries One rainy day I was fooled like this before And anyway I don't need no more Easy love With no meanin's Oh, easy love Ah, with no feelin's Easy love Easy love Easy love kills words of love Easy love Easy love With no meanin' Easy love Ah, with no feelin's Easy love With no meanin's Oh easy love With no meanin'
