

Angel

Buffy Sainte-Marie

G Em
Come now, and be my love,
Am C G Em
And leave your dying desert to the rains
G Em
Give up your treasured wounds,
Am C G Em
Let go the tempting memory of the pain.
C D
Give up the vows you've taken
G Em C Am G
And you will live, and you will learn to fly away,
D
And you will fly.

G Em
And you will live my love
Am C G Em
And see the stars regain your starless night
G Em
And you will find your sun
Am C G Em
and learn the magic meaning of it's light
C D
All souls will be yours to cherish
G Em C Am G
Rising, falling, in their earthly flight
And you will fly

G Em
And I would love my love
Am C G Em
And he would seek a refuge in my eyes
G Em
But no resource of love,
Am C G Em
Could keep him from the fire where loving dies
C D
And I would reach out my hand as he was
G Em C Am G
Falling, falling to his home on high
And he would fly

G Em Am C G Em

G Em
Give up your treasured wounds,
Am C G Em
Let go the tempting memory of the pain
C D
Give up the vows you've taken
G Em C Am G
And you will live, and you will learn to fly again,
And you will fly.
