

Alone

Bullet For My Valentine

No more I'm taking this hatred from you
You make me feel dead when I'm talking to you
You'll take me for granted when I'm not around
So burn all your bridges 'cause I'm not going down

This time I will be heard, I'm not gonna burn
It's funny how the table, how the table turns
You fake condemnation, you pray for salvation
'Cause your heart is made of stone, you can die and rot alone

I hope you're unhappy and hurting inside
I want you to choke when you swallow your pride
Lay in your coffin and sleep with your sins
Give me the nails and I'll hammer them in right now

This time you won't be heard, you are gonna burn
It's funny how the table, how the table turns
You fake condemnation, you pray for salvation
'Cause your heart is made of stone, you can die and rot alone

You fake condemnation, you pray for salvation
'Cause your heart is made of stone, you can die and rot alone

This time you won't be heard, you are gonna burn
It's funny how the table, how the table turns
You fake condemnation, you pray for salvation
'Cause your heart is made of stone, you can die and rot alone

You fake condemnation, you pray for salvation
'Cause your heart is made of stone, you can die and rot alone

You can die and rot alone, just die and rot alone
This time you won't be heard
This time you won't be heard
This time you won't be heard
