

Coming in Loud

Bullet

Vast open spaces
And relentless lands
On a journey bound to never end
A blood red horizon
Staring back to me
On the move as the sun descends

With wheels keep on rolling
A motor sworn to burn
Heart and soul destined to never learn

Clean shot
Power up
Through the smoke clouds
I'm coming in loud

Blazing pipes at nighttime
Lightens up the dark
The goal is straight within my sight
Watched by the vultures
Caught in their eyes
I leave behind their dire cries

With wheels keep on rolling
A motor sworn to burn
Heart and soul destined to never learn
I'm highway bound

With wheels keep on rolling
A motor sworn to burn
Heart and soul destined to never learn
