

Thinking of You

Busted

Nowhere else I'd rather be today.
In my mind a million miles away.

She's on fire, like no one else could get me higher.
I guess I'm just a fucking liar.
No matter where I go,
No matter what I do.

I keep thinking of you.
I keep thinking of you.
It's always been, you.
I keep thinking of you.
It's always been...

Wish I had the heart to let this go.
Nothing I can do will make it so.

She's on fire, like no one else could get me higher.
I guess I'm just a fucking liar.
No matter where I go,
No matter what I do.

I keep thinking of you.
I keep thinking of you.
It's always been, you.
I keep thinking of you.
It's always been...
