Flat-Pack Philosophy

Buzzcocks

I'm cracking up can't take the strain From heaven to hell and back again

And so each night I say a prayer Someone to love someone to care

Hold on Why am I here ? What are we living for ? All of my hopes, dreams and desires Assembly required That's flat-pack philosophy

So when my thoughts make me depressed I think the best and fuck the rest

Despite it all the future's key The double decker bus, the one I didn't see

Hold on Why am I here ? What are we living for ? All of my hopes, dreams and desires Assembly required That's flat-pack philosophy

Hold on Why am I here ? What are we living for ? All of my hopes, dreams and desires Assembly required That's flat-pack philosophy
