Pariah

Buzzcocks

No one seems to matter anymore Can't get back to normal like before Everywhere I look and see the same Everytime I turn around you're back again

Can't you see I'm burning inside Can't you see I'm yearning inside I'm sick of all this stubborn pride Pariah

It seems to me you think that love's a crime
You've taken what is yours and now you're after mine
I'm running round in circles
Nowhere else to go
Hermes Trimegistus
As above so below

Can't you see I'm burning inside Can't you see I'm yearning inside These feelings cannot be denied Pariah
