

Hardest Time

Caesar

This is the hardest time, I can't define it's never easy
When you're said goodbye
We're all inclined to act like nothing's wrong

I am the one, he said
Who never had a proper reason to be sad or down
But now I found I've got them all in one

I can't define, and nothing should be wrong
I can't decide until I feel it

I am the one, he said
Who never had a proper reason
Until we said goodbye
We're all inclined to act like nothing's wrong
