

A Man Asking the Universe

Cain's Dynasty

Where's the answer for my dreams?
Where's the place I cannot reach?
Where's the peace in which I believe?
Is the answer inside me?

How many days and nights
Does it take to feel alive again?
What do I have to change
In my life to breathe again?

Where's the answer for my prayers?
I know, it is not in the past

Now it's time to change my mind
Now it's time to lose the innocence
Now it's time to control the game
Like a man asking the universe

How many test and fails
Does it take to feel alive again?
What I suppose to do
In my life to breathe again?

Where's the answer for my prayers?
I know, it is not in the past

Now it's time to change my mind
Now it's time to lose the innocence
Now it's time to control the game
Like a man asking the universe

Where's the answer for my dreams?
Where's the place I cannot reach?
Where' the peace in which I believe?
Is the answer inside me?

Now it's time to change my mind
Now it's time to lose the innocence
Now it's time to control the game
Like a man asking the universe
