

Give This Time

Cam

You help me redraw the line
Between the earth and the sky.
And with the stars in reach
I can smile twice as bright.
Oh please, let's just give this time.

I could get lost in your hands
And let go of the road I had planned.
And with only life ahead
I could yield to love's demands.
Oh please, let's just give this time.

I know you've heard it all before.
Broken promises of more.
But you can never be sure
'Til you give this time.

I don't know all you are,
So before I go too far,
I'll take this dream of you
And lock it safe in my heart.
And we'll just see in time.
Yeah we'll just see in time.
