Satan Satan I know it was a girl that braught you down Satan Satan I know it was a girl that braught you down Satan My sweet Satan Don't let them take your light from you again Satan Satan I know it was a girl that braught you down The only hell I've known Was the blue of her eyes And the only thing I've lost Was the heaven between her thighs I could sleep for a million days Or a million fucking nights If it would keep you out of my mind Then it would be alright Satan Satan I know it was a girl that braught you down Satan My sweet Satan I know it was a girl that braught you down Here in hell Everything is well Here in hell all is well Here in hell Everything is well I'm wishing you were here in hell
