

Another Man's Woman

Carbon Leaf

I fell in love with another man's woman
Another man's woman's got a hold on me
I'm on my knees, I cannot see
She came out of the sun just like a deity
She came out of the cold and she is melting me
I fell in love with another man's woman
Another man's woman's got a hold on me
She's swarming in my head just like a buzz of bees
She's hit me like a cyclone on the seven seas
She came in from the rain and she's drowning me

Adrift and marooned on a splinter at sea
Washed up in the desert and there's nothing to drink
And it's no surprise that nothing rhymes with woman
Adrift and marooned on a splinter at sea
Washed up in the desert and there's nothing to drink
Well, oh Lord, I'm sure you're bored of forgivin' me
But don't you see

I fell in love with another man's woman
Another man's woman's got a hold on me
A match in the rain
A moth to the flame
A pleasure-seekin' yahoo with a penchant for pain
A double-decker bus of trouble, I'm in the way
I fell in love with another man's woman
Another man's woman's got a hold on me
I painted over truth with my tear-stained lies
I took all of the honey 'til the honeycomb dried
These fantasies could make a dead man rise
