

Sadistic Embrace

Carnifex

Since the beginning I've been thinking of a way.
Since the beginning I knew I couldn't change.
I knew from day one that this never had a chance.
Its all fake, Its all in the past.
Partial understanding of my forced identity; I'm dead inside and it's all I'll ever be.
I gave up everything, I gave it all away.
Partial understanding of my forced identity; all we have is false hope.
