

Thunder and Lightning

Carola

I went alone to the party
And worked my way through the crowd
I felt your hand on my shoulder
Didn't know what to do, when I looked at you
My heart was beating so loud

Your eyes were blue like the ocean
Your smile a flash in the night
You made me shiver all over
And your magical spell was working so well
I fell in love at first sight

Help me 'cause I'm falling
I'm no longer on solid ground
And here it comes again that rumbling sound

Thunder and lightning
Caught in a landslide of love

I see a light that's burning so bright like fire
Thunder and lightning
Struck by the lovelight again
Losing control
My body and soul are burning
Yearning for your love

I went alone to the party
And now I'm leaving with you
Your kiss is almost electric
And a touch with a force, magnetic like yours
Is something I never knew

Help me 'cause I'm falling
I'm no longer on solid ground
And here it comes again that rumbling sound
