

I Just Can't Live a Lie

Carrie Underwood

Lately, nothing I do, ever seems to please you
And maybe, turning my back would be that much easier
'Cause hurtful words are all that we exchange
But I can't watch you walk away

Can I forget about the way it feels to touch you?
And all about the good times that we've been through Could I wake up without you every day?
And would I let you walk away?

No, I can't learn to live without
And I can't give up on us now

Oh, I know I could say we're through and tell myself I'm over y ou
But even if I made a vow, I promise not to miss you now
And try to hide the truth inside, I fell 'cause I, I just can't live a lie

Could I forget the look that tells me that you want me?
And all the reasons that make loving you so easy
The kiss that always makes it hard to breathe
The way, you know, just what I mean

No, I can't learn to live without Oh, so don't you give up on us now

Oh, I know I could say we're through and tell myself I'm over y ou
But even if I made a vow, I promise not to miss you now
And try to hide the truth inside, I fell 'cause I, I just can't
live a lie
Oh, and I don't wanna try

Oh, I know I could say we're through and tell myself I'm over y ou
But even if I made a vow, I promise not to miss you now
And try to hide the truth inside, I fell 'cause I, I just can't
live a lie
I just can't live a lie

But even if I made a vow, I promise not to miss you now
And try to hide the truth inside, I fell 'cause I, I just can't
live a lie
Oh, I can't live a lie, oh, I can't live a lie