

Caught

Casey Abrams

You got the longest legs I've ever seen
Those pretty eyes keep catching the light
The way you lick your lips is hypnotizing
I swear I could watch you all night
And I feel like a thief trying to steal a glimpse
So lock me up and throw away the key
If it's a crime wanting those hips

And it seems to me
I'm in love undeniably
And I dig you, what you got
And these goods I'm staring at are hot

You caught me looking at you
Well, I caught you looking at me
Be-headed like criminals
Well I guess that we're both guilty
Cause I see what you're thinking
Know what you're hiding
Why don't you hand it over?
Cause I'm looking at you
And you're looking at me

You can be the best thing that I ever stole
Be the day I was twelve, stole a tootsie roll
And I feel like this time
I get a life sentence for this crime

And it seems to me
I'm in love undeniably
And I dig you, what you got
And these goods I'm staring at are hot

You caught me looking at you
Well, I caught you looking at me
Be-headed like criminals
Well, I guess that we're both guilty
Cause I see what you're thinking
Know what you're hiding
Why don't you hand it over?
Cause I'm looking at you
And you're looking at me

You caught me looking at you
Well, I caught you looking at me
Be-headed like criminals
Well, I guess that we're both guilty
Cause I see what you're thinking
Know what you're hiding
Why don't you hand it over?
Cause I'm looking at you
And you're looking at me
