

Flying

Cast

You've got to fly You've got to fly You've got to fly You've got to fly

It's just like flying through the air It's just like flying through the air It's just like flying through the air

Ah you can make it if you dare You live your life without a care You know that love is everywhere

Now you wanna fly, reach the sky so come on, come on I see the world you live, remain so big so come on, come on Come on come on

You send your message through the air Receive it loud and clear
You send your message through the air Ah can you aim high to the sky You never know unless you try, Can you aim high to the sky

Now you wanna fly so reach the sky Come on, come on

I see the world you live, remain so big So come on, come on Come on come on

You've got to fly You've got to fly You need to fly You've got to fly You need to fly You've got to fly You've got to fly You've got to fly

Love is all around you You know it all And you see it all So come on, come on

Now you wanna fly, reach the sky Come on, come on I see the world you live, remain so big So come on, come on Come on come on
