

Treasure House

Cat's Eyes

We live alone
Under the sun
No more to do
In the late afternoon

Everyone we know
They only slow us down
We move through the air
And we know what's good

We have the girl
We'll never share
The two of us know
And I don't want to give her to anyone, anyone

We have the girl
We'll never share
The treasure house knows
And I don't want to give her to anyone, anyone
And I don't want to give her to anyone, anyone
