The Parting Glass

Celtic Woman

Of all the money, that e'er I had, I spent it in good company, And all the harm i have ever done, 'Alas it was to none but me.

And all I've done for want of wit, To memory now i cant recall, So fill to me the parting glass, Goodnight and joy be to you all.

So fill to me the parting glass, And drink a health whate'er befalls, Then gently rise and softly call, Goodnight and joy be to you all.

Of all the comrades that e'er I had,
They're sorry for my going away,
And the sweethearts that e'er I had,
They'd wish me one more day to stay.
But it since it fell into my lot,
That I should rise and you should not,
I'll gently rise and softly call,
Goodnight and joy be to you all.

Fill to me the parting glass, And drink a health whate'er befalls, Then gently rise and softly call, Goodnight and joy be to you all.

But it since it fell into my lot, That i should rise and you should not, I'll gently rise and softly call, Goodnight and joy be to you all.

So fill to me the parting glass, And drink a health whate'er befalls, Then gently rise and softly call, Goodnight and joy be to you all.

Goodnight and joy be to you all.
