A planet far away
Thirsty motors yearn for stuff
In last breathes they pray
For oil and not for love

Machines are their gods
Fathers just electric voices
Their one and final thought
Suicide without a choice

Tank up gasoline
Close your eyes and fly
For the holy godmachine
Sweet dolls should never die
[2x]

Emptiness is all they see
Nothing left to burn
Perhaps one day they'll find a black sea
And die lucky lonely

And die lucky lonely
Die lonely

Tank up gasoline
Close your eyes and fly
For the holy godmachine
Sweet dolls should never die
[2x]
