The Dimension Beyond

Centinex

Riding through storms
And blowing winds
The winter night
Like a Northern breeze

Onward to the grace Burn me in the dimension beyond

The sun turns to black And moonshine prevails The power of shadows In grief and in pain

Forever the serpent sign shall rise Eternal is the hate
of the pagan call
And bleed for me, seal my fate
among the cries
A dimension beyond the blackest times

Follow the past And the arctic star It leads you to Chaos and lust

Forever - The serpent sign Eternal - Is the hate And bleed for me - Seal my fate The dimension beyond the blackest times
