

Lost

Century

falling down into the secrets the secrets in my mind leaving all my life behind me absolution hard to find memorys dawn in pale forgiveness i know i was unkind can you please forgive me never enough, i fall apart sawing feelings in my own cage my soul is crying loud longing for some rest in my brain no more turning inside out memorys dawn in pale forgiveness

my time to feel is gone
can you please forget me never again, i`m lost on

heaven`s ground - lost between those feelings i have never found sometimes i look in the mirror the mirror of myself is it just a waste? or something something i should build

heaven`s ground - lost between those feelings have never found i am lost in myself - on heaven`s ground i am lost in myself - my soul cry`s loud
