

All The Lies Are True

Charlie Louvin

All the things that I denied saying everyone had lied
That I could never ever do these things to you
I confess now that you're gone they were right I did you wrong
And all the lies you've heard about me are true
It was easy at the start to fool your trusting heart
But I didn't think I'd end up losing you
So let my mistakes be known now that you are really gone
And all the lies you've heard about me are true

It was easy at the start...
