

Twin Fawn

Chelsea Wolfe

Were you sleeping on the other side
Into frozen, monstrous light
It killed you, a stillbirth
Anonymous loss
The twin fawns, the roses
Nothing lives long
I feel you, phantom touch
Although you're far
I hear you, i taste your blood
I haven't had enough

You've gone away on the inside in time
You've gone away on the inside in time

You cut me open
You lived inside
You kill the wonder
Nowhere to hide
I held you sober
White smoke and low life
A big pill to swallow
A mountain to climb

True love
Twin fawn
Skin crawl
Twin fawn

A cold flash
It hurts to stay, but it hurts to stop
Sharpened by gritstone
My heart was shorn
You don't kneel, you don't cry
You'll break the neck of any man who'll try

You've gone away on the inside in time
You've gone away on the inside in time

You cut me open
You lived inside
You kill the wonder
Nowhere to hide
I held you sober
White smoke and low life
A big pill to swallow
A mountain to climb

True love, twin fawn
Skin crawl
Twin fawn, true love
