I don't know where I run to I only know that you run from me I don't know where to turn to I always thought that you belonged to me I saw your face in every marvelous cloud I hear your voice in every lovely sound I feel your touch it`s so heavenly My heart starts beating for my lonely Destiny, destiny You broke my heart into pieces Since the time you`ve walked away I hope I`ll never get these feelings For you and me Oh, it's only a dream It seems to be the end of it all The lovely dreams for you and me are cold No place for hearted heat, there's a wall My perfekt world destroyed, Oh god I`m falling, Oh god I`m falling
