

Who Is Who

Chinchilla

in the name of the man the glory, the saint the truth of war metal, blood and pain passion and warfare battle of lies the best man kills children and wives the hail in our eyes
the hail in our soul
we will fight back one time again I wanna be a member of the who is who tell me, will there ever be the truth
searching for the meaning of my life I see the blood on his mind see the blood on his hand in the hall of fame he survives the smell in my mouth of blood and sand physical fire, burning in my brain
the hail in our eyes
my love is when the enemy dies
I wanna be a member of the who is who
