I still love you, I still want you.
I still need you, don't hang up and say goodbye.

Walking on the beach last night, hoping things would be all rig ht, my baby lying on her bed, it's you I saw instead. Thinking of the one I love, your the one I'm thinking of. San Francisco days, San Francisco nights.

I meet a girl in Mexico I should of told her then I know, that I still think of you, we never will be through. San Francisco days, San Francisco nights. San Francisco days, San Francisco nights. I still love you, I still want you. I still need you, don't hang up and say goodbye.

Walking down to market street feeling my heart skip a beat, to see someone who looks like you, I guess that I'm not through Dreaming of the one I love, you know what I'm dreaming of. San Francisco days, San Francisco nights.

I'm heading for that golden gate hoping I won't be to late, to find the one that I still love.

It's you I'm dreaming of, San Francisco nights.

San Francisco days, San Francisco nights.

San Francisco days, San Francisco nights.

San Francisco.........
