Here I stand and I'm waiting, here I stand and I'm waiting. Here I stand and I'm waiting down, where I used to meet you dow ${\tt n}$.

Where the world was our toy.

Here I stand and I'm wondering why, did you ever leave me, why? Break the heart of that boy.

Here I stand with my heart in my hands and I offer love to you. Here I stand with my world gone wrong and I wonder what to do.

Here I stand and I'm waiting, here I stand and I'm waiting.

Here I stand with my heart in my hands and I offer love to you. Here I stand with my world gone wrong and I wonder what to do. What to do.

Here I stand and I'm waiting, here I stand and I'm waiting

Oh how I've missed you, I wanted to kiss you.
I dreamt that I held you and I lost you again.
Lost you again.
(Here I stand and I'm waiting)
And I lost you again.
(Here I stand and I'm waiting)
And I lost you again.
(Waiting)
