

Love's Such a Strange Thing

Chris Norman

I never thought I never knew
That this would happen to me and you
And after all is said and done
The thing that's over had just begun
I never thought I'd get it
But you know I must admit it I was wrong
You know that love's such a strange thing
Oh it's so hard to explain
I can't do the right thing

You know that people are strange
No matter how I choose it
Well you know I'm gonna lose it just the same
I could only stand around
And watch her walking away
And man I'm telling you
That there was nothing I could do
Nothing I could say she just walked away
Yeah, yeah

I took her love I let it fall
I blew my future and that ain't all
But when it's gone what can you do
You ain't got nothing to pull you through
Now I can't forget it
But you know I must admit it I was wrong
You know that love's such a strange thing
Oh it's so hard to explain
And I can't do the right thing
You know that people are strange
No matter how I choose it
Well you know I'm gonna lose it just the same
Yeah, yeah, yeah
