

That's Just Life

Chrishan

Everyone's runnin'
Runnin' from faith
I would start now but it's a little too late
I'm stuck watchin' these hours turn into days
Watchin' my future, slippin away

But I know I'll find
Up in the sky
A place like deep in my heart
Beneath the scars
I know I'll find a love like mine
A love like deep in my heart
Beneath the scars

Sometimes I get lonely
Sometimes I just cry
Sometimes I'm just looking in the rearview asking myself why
Sometimes we get older
Sometimes that's just life
Sometimes I'm just lookin' in the rearview asking myself why
Sometimes that's just life
Someimtes that's just life

I feel it comin'
But I'm not afraid
If I should die young then that's the price that I pay
I'll make amends with my exes
I'll pray my sins are erased
Just so I can breathe free
At the end of the day

But I know I'll find
Up in the sky
A place like deep in my heart
Beneath the scars
I know I'll find a love like mine
A love like deep in my heart
Beneath the scars

Sometimes I get lonely
Sometimes I just cry
Sometimes I'm just lookin' in the rearview asking myself why
Sometimes we get older
Sometimes that's just life
Sometimes I'm just lookin' in the rearview asking myself why
Sometimes that's just life
Someimtes that's just life
Sometimes that's just life

Sometimes I get lonely
Sometimes I just cry
Sometimes we get older

Sometimes that's just life
