

I've Got A Feeling

Christie

I've Got A Feeling lyrics
I've got a feeling
That you've been doing me wrong
Oh everybody's talking
Said that you've been doing me wrong

Woh, I, I've got a feeling
You've been, you've been telling me lies
Everybody knows, everybody knows
You've been telling, telling me lies

Woh yeah, I've got to find
Some peace of mind
Know that I'll do anything for you
Oh baby don't you know
There ain't nothing, nothing in the world, I won't do for you

Yeah, I, I've got a feeling
That everybodys', everybody's laughing at me
You treat me like a fool,
And everyone, everyone is laughing at me

Woh, I love you madly
But you treat me badly
Baby, baby what am I supposed to do
Woh now babe, don't you know
There ain't nothing, nothing in the world
That I won't do for you

Well, I, I've got a, I've got a feeling
You don't want me no more
Well baby don't desert me
Please don't desert me no more
