

Come On

Christine Anu

You wake up in the morning
Your mouth is arid dry
Red blazing eyes alight
Like the flame inside
You cast a shadow on your sould
No view out of the window
No one can see
Nobody knows

The earth it is not watered
When your thirst is filled with poison
And you spirit turns
The earth it is not watered
When your thirst is filled with poison
And you spirit turns

Brother father lover son
You are a king the day you're born
You walk in lead
She falls behing
Teacher of a better way
Will your son ever know a brighter day
It goes on
And on and on

The earth it is not watered
When your thirst is filled with poison
And your spirit turns
The earth it is not watered
When your thirst is filled with poison
And your spirit turns

Come on come on come on
You know you'll find another way
Come on come on come on
You know you'll see another day

You wake up in the morning
Your wife and children gone
Through tears you swallow pride
Guilt returns inside
The surface is not moving
A struggle is beginning
You're waiting to burst right out

The earth it is not watered
When your thirst is filled with poison
And your spirit turns
The earth it is not watered
When your thirst is filled with poison
And your spirit turns

Come on come on come on
Come on come on come on
