

Into the Glorious

Christy Nockels

I was made for more than this world could offer me
My heart to hold true mystery
My voice was made to fall on holy ears
My life to collide with majesty

Out from the ordinary into extraordinary

This is a heart-cry from my life
To say I love You, God, I love You
So take me deeper, oh, I can hear You calling
Inviting me in into the glorious

I was made me for rest in a world that's striving
To lie down in the fields of green
To set my feet upon this holy ground
To build my life on the things unseen

Out from the ordinary into extraordinary

Out from the ordinary into extraordinary
You're calling me, You're calling me
And God it's a breakthrough
Now I can see You Inviting me, inviting me, oh
