

Leaning on You, Jesus

Christy Nockels

I am leaning in with a quiet trust
To my source of life, to the one I love
I am drawing near with my hands held high
For I know that You satisfy
And the same grace that saved me
Is the same grace that keeps me...
Leaning, leaning on You, Jesus
Leaning on the wonders of Your Cross
I am leaning, leaning on You, Jesus
Leaning on the everlasting arms
I am following where Your Spirit leads
Ever marvelling at Your love for me
I am listening to Your still small voice
It's mightier than the fiercest storm
And the same grace that saved me
Is the same grace that keeps me...
How sweet it is to trust You, Lord
I'm learning how to trust You more
Oh, I will trust in the name of the Lord, my God
