

Angels Falling

Cindy Morgan

The streets are dark
Black street car
Walking way too far
To find your way back home
The windows down
The curtains brown
To close the sound
That keeps haunting your soul
Don't you know
You better watch your step
Baby it's a long drop down
Too many voices calling
You better watch your step
Baby it'll take you down to no tomorrow
See all the angels falling
The night is long
And peace is gone
The right and wrong
Are lost inside the gray
The bridge is high
And life's a lie
You've tried to fly
But never left the ground
Don't look down

Don't take anymore of your time
Believing a lie
Abandon the dark
Oh won't you come fly
To heaven's saving grace
