

Let Somebody Love You

Cindy Morgan

It seems you never get too close
Tell me why you turn me away
So love is what you fear the most (Sooner or later) You've just got to tell someone
Tell me how long till you let it go
Only one way you'll ever know
Why don't you let somebody love you
Maybe then you can believe in love
Why don't you let somebody need you
Maybe then you can believe in love
Are there secrets that you've never told
All the days just lost to the night
Reaching out for someone you could hold
(Someone hurt you) Left you here to stand alone
Hide behind the silence of your soul
But only truth can live in the light
Why don't you let somebody love you
Maybe then you can believe in love
Why don't you let somebody need you
Maybe then you can believe in love
Why don't you let somebody love you
I don't know what else to say
Just know that He's here
And He won't turn away
Don't you know that Jesus waits for you
Just reach out for Him, He will reach out to you
Give you a love that longs to be true to you
Only one way you'll ever know
Only one way, just let it go

Why don't you let somebody love you
Maybe then you can believe in love
Why don't you let somebody need you
Maybe then you can believe in love
Why don't you let somebody love you
