

Love's Sweet Name

Cindy Morgan

The tide washes me home
From sorrow's painful shore
And floods my soul
And makes me whole
The peaceful autumn rain
The sound of love's refrain
That drowns my sin
Fills me again
With love's sweet name
The saviors warm embrace
The arms so full of grace
That never change
That bear my pain
In love's sweet name
Midnight calling in my fragile ear
Like moving shadows
Following me near
But I'm saved
So 'till by journeys end
I've found a faithful friend
'Tis but a taste of what awaits
In love's sweet name
