

Touching and Kissing

Cinema Bizarre

Looking for a shot of you
In someone else's smile
I'm hanging on to every word.
Comparing all the time.
The more I break the more they talk.
I'm left paralyzed.

I'm struggling through the lonely nights.
Questions fill my mind.

I'm touching and kissing
With tears in my eyes.
No one can help me forget.
You're touching and kissing
With tears in your eyes.
It's not over...

Running through these dirty streets
Of concrete and steel
Wrapped up in these velvet sheets
Give me something surreal.
There is no substitute.
No one else is you.
No one else is you!
I'm falling into someone's eyes.
Come make me feel alive.

I'm touching and kissing
With tears in my eyes.
No one can help me forget.
You're touching and kissing,
With tears in your eyes
No way, it's just not over...

This tunnel just goes on and on and on
Repeating- repeating- repeating
Can someone just let me out- it keeps
It keeps repeating, repeating
All the time- time- time- time- time- time- time- time...

I'm touching and kissing
With tears in my eyes
No one can help me forget.
You're touching and kissing
With tears in your eyes
It's not over...
