

Truth Is

City Lights

Did you think I didn't notice
That you were giving part of your time
To somebody else
The most pathetic thing about it
Is that I tricked myself into thinking you changed

Truth is
I still think about you every day
It drives me insane
I can't destroy the memory
Of that gut wrenching feeling
That's what it feels like
When your heart turns to stone

What a fucking embarrassment
You just weren't that into it
I laugh when I look back on it now
I'll chalk it up to you
Having so much growing up to do
Let's face it
You're the worst person I've ever met

Truth is
I still think about you every day
It drives me insane
I can't destroy the memory
Of that gut wrenching feeling
That's what it feels like
When your heart turns to stone

You always looked at me
Like I was invisible

You always looked at me
Like I was invisible
When I was with you
I felt like I didn't exist

And when your heart is in your stomach
And your head is a wreck
I hope you think back on the way you treated me
And fucking rot in your bed

And when your heart is in your stomach
And your head is a wreck
I hope you think back on the way you treated me
And fucking rot in your bed

Truth is
I still think about you every day
It drives me insane
I can't destroy the memory
Of that gut wrenching feeling
When your heart turns to stone

That's what it feels like

When your heart turns to stone

That's what it feels like
When your heart turns to stone
