Flaming Hot Cheetos

Sometimes I feel like I just wanna go back to my old ways You're telling me I'm silly "it's no fun in the old days" I'm such a romantic I never remember how things truly happened I guess you're attractive Or something "Live in the moment" That's what they told me But what ever happened To when you would hold me And hold me And hold me? "Girlfriend" or "girl, that's a friend"? It's easy just to pretend That we don't have something real It's just how we feel We feel Oh, it's just how we feel How we feel I'm feeling something, right? I wanna be the one you think about at night And I wanna be the one that you would put up a fight for You know that I adore That even when you're bored

I'd buy you anything and everything I can't afford
