Tales of Brave Ulysses

Eric Clapton

You thought the leaden winter would bring you down forever But you rode upon a steamer to the violence of the sun

And the colors of the sea blind your eyes with trembling mermai ds

And you touch the distant beaches with tales of brave Ulysses How his naked ears were tortured by the sirens sweetly singing For the sparkling waves are calling you to kiss their white lac ed lips

And you see a girl's brown body dancing through the turquoise And her footprints make you follow where the sky loves the sea And when your fingers find her, she drowns you in her body Carving deep blue ripples in the tissues of your mind

The tiny purple fishes run laughing through your fingers
And you want to take her with you to the hard land of the winte

Her name is Aphrodite and she rides a crimson shell And you know you cannot leave her for you touched the distant s ands

With tales of brave Ulysses, how his naked ears were tortured By the sirens sweetly singing

The tiny purple fishes run laughing through your fingers
And you want to take her with you to the hard land of the winte
