Run Away

Classix Nouveaux

Run away Leave all your worries behind you Run away Run for your life never turn back Run away Run from the wrong that surrounds you Run away Run like a fool and you just might make it And soon you will be Right ware you wanna be Free to live the way you want to And soon you will find Just what you're lookin' for All the good times you never, never knew Run away Follow the voice deep inside you Run away Follow the sun, find a new life Run away Run from the lies that destroy you Run away Run like a fool and you just might make it And soon you will be Right ware you wanna be Free to live the way you want to And soon, i said soon, you will find Just what you're lookin' for All the good times you never, never knew Run away Run away Run away Run away Run away Run away